133. In addition to the dates and emails set forth above, REAL employed other of PLAINTIFFS’ images in Email Blasts (copies of some of such uses are annexed hereto as Exhibit “A”)

134. Upon information and belief, REAL further employed PLAINTIFFS’ name, image and/or likeness on the REAL website, therealreal.com.

135. Each of the uses of PLAINTIFFS’ respective images and likenesses by REAL as complained of herein were for trade, advertising and commercial purposes.

136. REAL’s use of MONTERO’s name as complained of herein was for trade, advertising and commercial purposes.

137. That none the PLAINTIFFS, nor their agent, authorized REAL to use any of their respective names, images, or likenesses in their Email Blasts.

138. That none the PLAINTIFFS, nor their agent, authorized REAL to use any of their respective names, images, or likenesses for trade, advertising, or commercial purposes of any kind.

139. PLAINTIFFS never consented to endorse, promote, advertise or otherwise be associated with the brand REAL.

140. PLAINTIFFS never consented to endorse, promote, advertise or otherwise be associated with REAL's sale of products.

141. That REAL lacks a released signed by any of the PLAINTIFFS, or anyone with legal authority on their behalf, for the use of any of PLAINTIFFS' names, images, or likenesses to be used by REAL in any of their Email Blasts.

142. That REAL lacks a released signed by any of the PLAINTIFFS, or anyone with legal authority on their behalf, for the use of any of PLAINTIFFS' names, images, or likenesses to be used by REAL for trade, advertising, or commercial purposes of any kind.

143. REAL did not obtain the requisite written consent of the PLAINTIFFS, or anyone with legal authority on their behalf, prior to REAL's uses of their images as complained of herein.

144. That each of the complained of uses of PLAINTIFFS' respective names, images, and likenesses by REAL were calculated and intended to, and in fact did, bestow upon REAL an economic advantage by inter alia, promoting and generating sales of products.

145. That REAL further benefited by implying to its consumers and members that it had secured the rights use the name, image, and/or likeness of PLAINTIFFS.

146. That REAL further benefited by implying to its consumers and members that it had secured the rights to associate itself with PLAINTIFFS.

147. That the unauthorized use of each of PLAINTIFFS' name, image, and/or likeness by REAL occurred in the State of New York, other states in the United States and elsewhere where its consumers are located.

ADDITIONAL FACTS RELEVANT TO ALL CLAIMS

148. That Plaintiffs, by their agent's general counsel, Mr. Alan Kannof, Esq., issued and delivered a notice letter to REAL, dated April 10, 2016 (hereinafter the "April 10, 2016 Letter", a copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit "B").

149. The April 10, 2016 Letter notified REAL of the unauthorized uses of PLAINTIFFS' images, and demanded that REAL cease and desist all such uses, and refrain from any and all future uses of PLAINTIFFS' images.

150. Subsequent to the April 10, 2016 Letter, REAL used some of PLAINTIFFS' images and likenesses in Email Blasts.

151. That such post notice uses of PLAINTIFFS' images and likenesses constitute knowing uses of same.

152. Subsequent to notice to REAL, REAL cropped, altered, and otherwise modified the images it had put into the stream of commerce in an effort to avoid and circumvent the New York Civil Rights Law sections 50, 51 and The Lanham Act.

153. PLAINTIFFS' via their agent's general counsel again requested that REAL cease and desist all uses of the PLAINTIFFS' images and likenesses.

154. Notwithstanding REAL's requests, PLAINTIFFS' images and likenesses were not removed from the unauthorized publications.

155. PLAINTIFFS' images and likenesses remained in the stream of commerce.

156. That such unauthorized cropping and mutilation of the PLAINTIFFS' images and likenesses demonstrates knowing use and consciousness of liability under State & Federal Statutes.

157. Each of PLAINTIFFS' livelihood is based upon their respective image, persona, face and physical attributes and how such images may serve to promote or advertise the sale of products or services.

158. REAL altered, mutilated and radically changed such public images of PLAINTIFFS in a cynical effort to avoid liability under state and federal law, and with full knowledge that it had not sought or obtained permission from any of the PLAINTIFFS, or their authorized agent, to mutilate such images.

159. At no time did REAL seek the permission or consent from any of the PLAINTIFFS, nor their authorized agent, to alter any of the PLAINTIFFS' images and likenesses.

160. At all times relevant herein, defendant was aware, and fully knowledgeable, that its use of PLAINTIFFS' images and likenesses were in violation of state and/or federal law.

161. Subsequent to notice to REAL, defendant was aware, and fully knowledgeable, that its use of PLAINTIFFS' images and likenesses were in violation of state and/or federal law.

162. Subsequent to April 10, 2016, REAL, via its Vice President of Legal Affairs, Ms. Dana DuFrane, Esq., engaged in correspondence with Kannof.

163. However, the parties were unable to resolve the matters at issue herein, and REAL referred the matters to their outside counsel, Sidley Austin LLP.

164. Plaintiffs, by the undersigned counsel, issued and delivered a notice letter, dated November 11, 2016, to REAL, via its counsel Sidley Austin, LLP (hereinafter the "November 11, 2016 Letter", a copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit "C").

165. The November 11, 2016 Letter advised defendant, inter alia, to remove and cease and desist use of each of PLAINTIFFS' images, that its uses of the PLAINTIFFS' images are in violation of New York Civil Rights Law 50, 51 as well as Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15

U.S.C. 1125, and that it has no right to use PLAINTIFFS' images or likenesses in any way, shape or form.

166. That the November 11, 2016 Letter demanded, inter alia, a disclosure of the full nature and extent of defendant's uses of PLAINTIFFS' names, images, and likenesses, so that PLAINTIFFS could in good faith formulate a reasonable fee to compensate them for the unauthorized uses.

167. That defendant has failed to provide a meaningful response to the November 11, 2016 Letter.

168. On January 4, 2017, the parties, through their respective counsel, entered into an agreement to toll the applicable statute of limitations for 30 days so that the parties could engage in settlement discussions (hereinafter the "Tolling Agreement", a copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit "D").

169. On January 12, 2017, REAL, via its counsel, represented that it planned to present a settlement offer during the following week.

170. Notwithstanding, no settlement offer has been made by REAL.

171. Upon information and belief, REAL possesses information sufficient to provide full responses to the requests set forth in the November 11, 2016 letter.

172. That despite the Tolling Agreement, defendant has failed to provide the information and disclosures sought in the November 11, 2016 Letter.

173. That defendant has failed to participate in meaningful settlement discussions, despite PLAINTIFFS' counsel's requests for same.

174. Upon information and belief, REAL possesses sufficient knowledge and financial and legal resources and hold themselves out to be familiar with applicable law regarding the use of a person's name, image, photograph, or likeness for trade or advertising purposes within the State of New York and elsewhere.

175. Upon information and belief, REAL possesses sufficient knowledge and financial and legal resources and hold themselves out to be familiar with applicable law under the Lanham Act regarding the use of a person's name, image, photograph, or likeness.

176. REAL knew or should have known and been familiar with the applicable laws and statutes at issue herein.

177. Upon information and belief, REAL has failed to cease and desist all uses of PLAINTIFFS' images.

178. Defendant has failed to provide any compensation to any of PLAINTIFFS for REAL's uses of their name, image, and/or likeness.

179. That the use of PLAINTIFF MONTERO's name and image is/may be a violation of the Federal Trade Commission Act, section 5, 15 U.S.C. 45. in that defendant has unfairly used plaintiff's name and image in its commercial activities of advertising its products.

180. Upon information and belief defendant is a sophisticated licensor and licensee of intellectual property and knows that it must obtain the rights to intellectual property created by third parties and the models depicted in said works prior to its commercial use of same.

181. Upon information and belief, defendant failed to adhere to the procedures and protocols necessary for it to obtain the rights to use any of PLAINTIFFS' names, images, or likenesses, prior to its use of same.

182. That defendant has commercially benefited from its uses of the PLAINTIFFS' names, images, and/or likenesses.

183. That no permission, consent or authorization for use of any of PLAINTIFFS' names, images, or likenesses was ever sought by REAL, to PLAINTIFFS or their agent, prior to REAL's uses of same.

184. That the full nature and extent of all unauthorized uses of PLAINTIFFS' names, images, and/or likenesses are unknown to PLAINTIFFS as of this writing, said information being within the sole knowledge, custody, and control of Defendant.

185. That such details and information are expected to be ascertained through discovery in this action.

186. Pursuant to Federal Rule 11, PLAINTIFFS has sought to obviate judicial intervention and filing of suit.

187. The REAL has no defense at law to the claims set forth herein, nor is it, upon information and belief, in possession of any exculpatory documents although same have been duly demanded from them.

188. Paragraphs "1" through "187" are incorporated by reference with respect to each of the below claims for relief.

JURY DEMAND

189. The plaintiffs request a trial by jury on all issues.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF VIOLATIONS OF NEW YORK CIVIL RIGHTS LAW §50 and §51 AS ALLEGED BY PLAINTIFFS CHUNG, WALTON, JONES, REYNOLDS, HARTZEL, PALM, FLEMING, HOOMANS, BOGUCHARSKAIA, MONTERO, and SCHMIDT AGAINST DEFENDANT

190. That each PLAINTIFF has a separate claim for relief against defendant under The New York Civil Rights Law, Sections 50, 51.

191. That the New York Civil Rights Law § 50 and 51 specifically proscribe the use of an individual's name, portrait or picture for trade or advertising purposes, without the prior written consent of said individual.

192. The New York Civil Rights Law § 51 provides inter alia, that compensatory and exemplary damages are recoverable thereunder.

193. Section 50 of the New York Civil Rights Law evidences a strong public policy against such unauthorized use, defining any such offense as a misdemeanor.

194. Section 51 of the New York Civil Rights Law enumerates civil remedies available thereunder including but not limited to money damages in the form of compensatory and/or exemplary damages and injunctive relief.

195. Defendant's uses of each of the PLAINTIFFS' names, images, and/or likenesses, are in direct violation of the New York Civil Rights Law § 50, 51 as there existed/exists no executed written consent to the specific uses complained of herein.

196. Defendant's uses of PLAINTIFFS' names, images, and/or likenesses, are in direct violation of the New York Civil Rights Law § 50, 51 as they failed to possess an executed written consent prior to any use by them of the Subject Images or plaintiff's name.

197. That REAL had actual knowledge that it had no authorization, consent or license from the PLAINTIFFS to use their respective names, images and/or likenesses for trade or advertising purposes.

198. Notwithstanding such knowledge, REAL employed PLAINTIFFS' respective names, images, and/or likenesses, knowingly, in violation of law.

199. As a result of the foregoing and pursuant to said statutes, PLAINTIFFS have been damaged and are entitled to relief as per statute in the forms of compensatory damages, in a sum to be determined by this Court, plus punitive or exemplary damages in a sum ultimately to be determined by this Court, and costs and disbursements incurred by plaintiff in the prosecution of this action, together with an Order from this Court permanently restraining the defendant herein from utilizing the name, image or likeness of the PLAINTIFFS for any trade or advertising purposes.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF
VIOLATION OF §43(a) OF THE LANHAM ACT
AS ALLEGED BY ALL PLAINTIFFS AGAINST DEFENDANT

200. That each PLAINTIFF has a separate claim for relief against defendant under The Lanham Act..

201. That as set forth herein, each of PLAINTIFFS' names, images, likenesses and/or persona have been used extensively and employed in international advertising campaigns for well-known products and marks, and are recognizable to the general public in at least the United States, and specifically regions and/or audiences in which and to whom REAL targets via its Email Blasts.

202. REAL's uses of PLAINTIFFS' names, images, likenesses and/or persona were aimed at its members and potential consumers in connection with REAL's products and services.

203. Each of PLAINTIFFS' names, images, likenesses and personas have been employed in massive ad campaigns seen in the same geographic areas as REAL's advertising and uses of PLAINTIFFS' names, images, likenesses and persona as complained of herein.

204. That the persons viewing the Email Blasts and seeing PLAINTIFFS' names, images, likenesses, and/or personas, are persons who are well aware of PLAINTIFFS' names, images, likenesses, and/or personas, and to whom PLAINTIFFS' name and images are recognizable.

205. That defendant intentionally traded on PLAINTIFFS' fame and notoriety.

206. That as a result of defendant's unauthorized uses of PLAINTIFFS' names, images, likenesses, and/or personas, PLAINTIFFS are made to appear as if they endorse REAL and its products.

207. THAT many, if not all, of PLAINTIFFS have entered into and do enter into agreements from time to time with competitors of some of the brands for products sold on the REAL website and with which REAL has associated PLAINTIFFS' names, images, likenesses, and/or personas.

208. That such unauthorized, false, and misleading association is harmful to PLAINTIFFS.

209. That such apparent, but false, endorsement is harmful to PLAINTIFFS.

210. That none of PLAINTIFFS have endorsed REAL, and any representations of same are utterly false and misleading.

211. That defendant has used, in connection with PLAINTIFFS' names, images, likenesses, and/or persona, the REAL name and logo, each of which falsely and/or misleadingly represents that PLAINTIFFS and REAL have a brand partnership and/or business relationship.

212. That the hereinabove stated uses of PLAINTIFFS' names, images, likenesses, and/or persona have expressly, implicitly, and/or negligently created a false impression of endorsement by PLAINTIFFS for defendant's consumer goods and services.

213. That defendant has caused PLAINTIFFS to be falsely associated with the sale of its consignment products.

214. That the general public is likely to be, and has been, deceived and/or confused into thinking that products that are the subject herein were sponsored by, or associated with one or more of PLAINTIFFS, or that PLAINTIFFS have provided their respective sponsorship or approval to such goods and/or the services of REAL.

215. That the general public is likely to be, and has been, deceived and/or confused into thinking that each of PLAINTIFFS and REAL have a business arrangement and/or branding agreement with each other.

216. Each of PLAINTIFFS have been injured as a result of defendant's unauthorized use of her name and the Subject Images.

217. That, the use of PLAINTIFFS' names, images, likenesses, and/or persona, in connection with commercial advertising or promotion, misrepresents the nature, characteristics, qualities or geographic origin of REAL's goods and services.

218. That disinterested third parties may have relied on such misrepresentation in seeking to purchase or sell a product through the REAL marketplace.

219. That the foregoing false endorsements constitute violations of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. §1125(a).

220. As a result of the foregoing and pursuant to said statutes, PLAINTIFFS have been damaged and are entitled to relief as per statute under 15 U.S.C. §1117 and in the forms of compensatory damages, in a sum to be determined by this Court, inclusive of defendant's profits, any damages sustained by the PLAINTIFFS, costs and disbursements incurred by PLAINTIFFS in the prosecution of this action, the reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by PLAINTIFFS in the prosecution of this action, together with an Order from this Court pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1116 permanently restraining the defendant herein from utilizing the name, image, likenesses or persona of each of the respective PLAINTIFFS for commercial purposes.

WHEREFORE, PLAINTIFFS demands judgment against the defendant as follows:

ON THE FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF – an award of an amount ultimately to be determined by the court, inclusive of an award of compensatory damages, and exemplary damages with interest thereon, costs and disbursements, and a permanent injunction;

ON THE SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF— an award of an amount ultimately to be determined by the court, inclusive of an award of compensatory damages pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1117(a) in the form of defendant’s profits, the damages sustained by the plaintiffs, the costs and disbursements, as well as the reasonable attorney’s fees pursuant, and a permanent injunction pursuant to 15 U.S.C. §1116;

And an Order of injunction permanently enjoining and prohibiting defendant, including but not limited to wholly owned subsidiaries, from employing or utilizing in any manner or media whatsoever, including all future uses, sales, transfers, assignments, or licensing of any and all of products, advertisements, or any other publication, bearing the name, portrait, photograph, image likeness, or persona of each of PLAINTIFFS, pursuant to The New York Civil Rights Law § 51, and/or The Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. 1116;

An award of attorneys’ fees, costs and expenses associated with the prosecution of this matter;

And such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.
